

THE MEANING BEHIND

Grade Level: Can be used for any grade and age

Can be played walking around the space

It's a great game to get kids:

- 1) Develop character
- 2) Build relationships
- 3) Use their voice
- 4) Get comfortable on stage
- 5) Give and Take

Explore Game

Can be played with any sized group (min 2)

Have all of your performers walk around the space in neutral then give one simple line for example

Person A "Oh it's you, how are you doing?"

Person B: "I'm fine but I have to go"

Then you will give them different scenarios but the line is always the same.

Depending on the scenario the meaning behind the line will be different

Continue with different scenarios and each time they need to go to a new partner if you can

Scenario ideas:

You haven't seen this person in a long time and the last time you did they did something bad to you

You are both spys hired to track the other person down

You haven't seen this person who was your best friend and you miss them

You run into someone who is a huge star and you are a big fan